What is slow, manual or unclear?

We get about 400 applications per open role. To save time, a recruiter pastes the CVs into a free online AI tool, which scores each candidate from 1 to 10. Everyone below 6 gets an automatic rejection email with no human review. We want to scale this to all open roles next quarter.

Your problem

The current process of using a free online AI tool for candidate scoring is not compliant with internal policies and regulations.

Fix it with an internal tool

Not allowed yet. Use the internal option above.

Approved external alternative

No approved external tool fits this case. Use the internal option above.

How others solve it

Companies are increasingly using AI for candidate scoring, emphasizing the importance of human oversight in the decision-making process. Many organizations utilize structured assessments and transparent scoring criteria to ensure fairness and reduce bias.

Is it allowed?

Compliance level is red. The use of an unapproved tool for scoring candidates involves personal data and supports hiring decisions without proper oversight, violating multiple compliance rules: R1, R2, R3, R4, R7.
