FMP-3464 · Streamlining Feedback Organization

Reference: FMP-3464 | Department: Other | Date: 11 Nov 2026 | Confidence: Medium (68%)

Executive summary

The team faces a challenge in efficiently organizing feedback from retrospectives. Implementing Miro AI can significantly reduce the time spent on this task.

Use case card

- Use case: Streamlining Feedback Organization
- Problem and frequency: After each team retro we have 50 or more anonymous sticky notes. Grouping them into themes and drawing a simple process map by hand takes about an hour. There are no names on the notes, and the team reviews the result together. (Weekly)
- Internal answer: Miro AI: Access Miro AI for clustering workshop notes and drawing process maps.; Use the tool to group sticky notes into themes and create a process map.; Ensure no personal data is included in the notes.
- External answer: None
- No internal solution: No
- Evidence and size: Supporting Learners' Agentic Engagement With Feedback 2016, The influence of culture, attention, and visual feedback on perceptual grouping 2021, Mapping sharing economy themes 2023, On the Automated Processing of User Feedback 2025, Natural Language Processing of Student's Feedback to Instructors 2023
- Compliance: 🟢 Green (G1, G2, G3, G5) · no review needed
- Effort: Low
- Impact: Medium
- Related past project: None
- Tool owner: None
- Quality: rerank 0.614 · groundedness 1
- Employee feedback: pending (arrives later, see Airtable)

Internal tool improvement ideas

- Improve user training on Miro features (confidence: High)
- Integrate Miro with existing feedback systems (confidence: Medium)
